

EUROSCRIPT BECOMES GLOBAL SOLUTION PARTNER FOR INVENTIVE DESIGNERS

euroscript introduces "eCom – euroscript Communication Management"

Bertrange/Antwerp, October 2009 – euroscript International, a leader in providing global solutions in content lifecycle management, and Inventive Designers, a provider of award-winning and innovative document solutions, today announced they have entered into a global solution partner agreement (Gold), leveraging euroscript's skills and industry experience to enable common solutions in communication management to be delivered to customers around the globe.

Especially industries with strict regulations and the need to intensify customer and partner relationships will benefit from "eCom – euroscript Communication Management". The solution enables accurate, legally compliant documents based on pre-fabricated and commonly approved templates and text modules to be created and produced quickly and efficiently. Under the terms of the partner agreement, euroscript will promote and resell Inventive Designers' flagship product Scriptura, which facilitates the design and control of the entire document flow, from composition and personalization to production and delivery.

"Scriptura forms an essential part of our "eCom" solution package", explained Mark Evenepoel, Chief International Officer of euroscript International S.A. "Especially in communication management, we've noticed that companies are requesting innovative, user-friendly and secure solutions. Inventive Designers' products fulfil these requirements and fit well into our solution environment."

About Inventive Designers
